

Feast of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary

- 8th December is the celebration of 'The Feast of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary'.
- Some believe that the feast celebrates Jesus' conception, but in fact it celebrates his mother Mary's Immaculate Conception.
- The feast celebrates that Mary, from the very first moment of her existence (her conception), was without sin and chosen to be the Mother of Jesus.

