A chailíní,

I miss not having you back in school after the Christmas holidays. I hope you had a good time though and got lots of nice surprises. Unfortunately, you will have to do your work at home for the next three weeks as we are not able to have you back in the school.

You can and feel sorry for yourself, OR you can SMILE, and enjoy the time with your family"

I know you are able to

1. work hard
2. be responsible
3. Déan do dhícheall! /DO YOUR BEST
4. And that is what I would like you to do!

These are my guidelines for you

- Do the work given to you by your teacher
- Work at a table neatly and quietly
- Have your books organised
- Remember to take a break like we do in school - have a drink and a snack and take some exercise
- Close your eyes and think - how would teacher like me to do it
- (Try your best and if you can't do it, stop. It is alright to move on to the next piece of work and come back to it later. If you still cannot do it leave it and you can let teacher know it was tricky.)

- You are great girls - be kind at home
- Don't forget to help Mom/Dad at home please by tidying away clothes, keep your things neat, helping with tasks at home when asked, playing with younger brothers or sisters

- Keep a diary and write your thoughts - perhaps you will be an author and these memories will help with your book!
- Draw pictures - every picture tells a story
- Write a play about your time at home!
- BÍ AG LÉAMH - read, read read!
- I miss you all and I know you miss school - your friends, teachers, SNA. For now though, we have to do as we are advised by the government and in doing that, we are good citizens of our country, MAITH SIBH A CHAILÍNÍ!
- BE THE GREAT GIRLS THAT YOU ARE 😊

I will be thinking of you all!

Le meas,

Mrs. Anne McCarthy,
Príomhoide
